Introduction

1. This Court is called upon to determine whether the actions of the Respondents in classifying the Petitioners—officers previously recruited to the Reserve Assistant Superintendent of Police cadre—into a "Support Service" within the regular police structure amounts to a violation of their fundamental rights guaranteed under Article 12(1) of the Constitution.
2. This application SC FR 36/2020 consolidates the grievances arising from a series of prior proceedings, namely SC FR 374/07, SC FR 348/12, SC FR 71/16, and SC Contempt 05/20. The parties have consented to the determination in this case as dispositive of the other related matters.

Factual and Procedural History

3. The Petitioners were recruited as Reserve Assistant Superintendents of Police on 21st March 2006, at a time when the Police Reserve Service had been abolished. By a Cabinet decision, it was agreed that these officers would be absorbed into the Regular Police Service.

4. Due to administrative inertia, this integration was not effectuated, leading to SC FR 374/07, in which the State undertook—on 10th June 2008—to absorb the Petitioners into the Regular Service with effect from the original date of appointment. That application was settled based on the undertaking.
5. However, subsequent to that undertaking, the then Inspector General of Police issued Circular No. 2070/2008 dated 27th June 2008, purporting to re-classify the Petitioners into Special and Technical Cadres. This act, which followed just 17 days after the State's commitment before this Court, sparked further litigation in SC FR 348/12.
6. While the matter remained thus unresolved, a seniority list dated 29th January 2016 placed the Petitioners in a segregated list separate from officers who were recruited subsequently. This arbitrary categorization formed the basis of SC FR 71/16.
7. Despite clear instructions from the National Police Commission (letters dated 15.10.2008 and 30.10.2009) that the Petitioners were part of the Regular Cadre, the Respondents issued new letters of appointment on or before 9th January 2020 reassigning the Petitioners into a so-called "Support Service". This final act triggered the present application.

Petitioners' Contentions

8. The Petitioners contend:

- That they have been continuously discriminated against despite the Supreme Court-sanctioned settlement in SC FR 374/07.
- That their classification into "Support Services" is arbitrary and lacks consultation or justification.
- That they have a legitimate expectation to be treated as part of the Regular Police Cadre.
- That similarly circumstanced officers were treated more favourably in terms of career progression.
- That their non-promotion and exclusion from the main seniority list constitute a violation of Article 12(1) of the Constitution.

Respondents' Preliminary Objections

9. The Respondents assert:

- That a reasonable classification exists based on the Petitioners' educational qualifications and specialized training.
- That grievances have been resolved through approved Schemes of Recruitment.
- That the claims are time-barred due to delays in challenging Circular 2070/2008

10. I must state that it is not the delay in challenging the IGP's circular that surfaces to the fore but the continuing episodes of classification that pervades the case.

Reasonable Classification

11. The law permits classification, but it is trite that classification must not be arbitrary and must have a rational nexus to the objective sought. The Petitioners were absorbed into the Regular Cadre by a Cabinet decision and by the unequivocal undertaking given to this Court. The classification imposed by Circular 2070/2008 lacks legal sanction from the National Police Commission or the Public Services Commission and undermines the legitimate expectation created by the State's undertaking.

12. Having regard to the pleadings and documents filed on behalf of all parties, this Court takes the view that the post-hoc creation of a "Support Service" and issuance of appointment letters without consultation or objective criteria offends Article 12(1) of the Constitution.

Legitimate Expectation

13. The Petitioners' expectation of equal treatment with similarly situated officers is founded on law and fact. Letters from the National Police Commission support their contention that they were absorbed into the Regular Cadre effective 21st March 2006. The failure to treat them on par with other regular officers and the sudden creation of a new cadre violates the doctrine of legitimate expectation. The Petitioners have undergone training in the same way as the other officer any classification s in the regular service

Arbitrariness and Discrimination

14. The Court would allude to Rienzie Perera v UGC, Charanjit Lal Chowdhury v Union of India<sup>1</sup> and Dayarathna v Minister of Health<sup>2</sup> to affirm that arbitrariness, lack of consultation, and discriminatory treatment of individuals in similar positions contravenes the principles of equality and non-discrimination enshrined in Article 12(1). In fact, Chowdhury v Union of India<sup>3</sup> it was clearly stated:

“a law applying to one person or one class of persons or one class of persons is constitutional if there is sufficient basis for the reason or reason for it. Any classification which is arbitrary and which is made without any basis is no classification and a proper classification must always rest upon some difference and must bear a reasonable and just relation to the things in respect of which it is proposed.”

15. The classification into a Support Service was not merely administrative reorganization but had significant career implications. The Petitioners missed promotional opportunities that, per the Regular Cadre Scheme, should have placed them at the rank of DIG by March 2023.

Delay and Time Bar

16. The Court finds the argument on time bar to be without merit. The continuous nature of the violation and the absence of finality in earlier proceedings keeps the cause of action alive. Further, the issuance of the 2020 appointment letters amounts to a fresh executive act warranting scrutiny.

Contempt Allegation (SC Contempt 05/20)

17. While this Court does not reach a finding on contempt in this judgment, it must be noted that non-compliance with the undertaking given in SC FR 374/07 reinforces the Petitioners' claim of a continuing violation of their fundamental rights. For the foregoing reasons, this Court holds that:

- The decision to categorize the Petitioners into a separate Support Service without consultation, and contrary to a prior undertaking and Cabinet decision, amounts to an infringement of the Petitioners' fundamental rights under Article 12(1).
- The Petitioners are entitled to be treated as part of the Regular Police Cadre with effect from 21st March 2006.
- The appointment letters dated on or before 9th January 2020 are quashed to the extent they assign the Petitioners to a separate Support Service.

In the circumstances this Court makes the following orders

1. A declaration is made that the Petitioners are entitled to be recognized as members of the Regular Police Cadre effective from 21st March 2006.
2. The Respondents are directed to reintegrate the Petitioners into the Regular Police Cadre and restore their seniority and career progression as per the applicable scheme of recruitment.
3. The impugned appointment letters categorizing them into the Support Service are hereby quashed.
